

OLD MEXICO IS CELEBRATING

THE CENTENARY OF BENITO JUAREZ, THE LIBERATOR OF HIS COUNTRY.

Special to the Herald.

City of Mexico, March 21.—In all parts of the Republic of Mexico fetes were held today in celebration of the centenary of Benito Juarez, the "Liberator," who was born March 21, 1806. In the capital and in all other cities throughout the republic the day was observed as a national holiday. Public buildings were decorated, business was suspended and anniversary meetings were held at which speakers of prominence told of the life and deeds of the patriot. Outside the City of Mexico the principal celebration is held in the city of Juarez, where a program of festivities covering several days has been arranged. A monument to Juarez is to be unveiled and a banquet given which will be attended by many public men.

It was due chiefly to the unconquerable courage of Benito Juarez that the attempt of Napoleon III to establish an empire in Mexico was frustrated. The French ruler did not succeed in placing the unfortunate Maximilian on the throne, and the Austrian archduke assumed the functions of emperor at the Mexican capital. But when Marshal Bazaine sailed away from Mexico with his French troops, Juarez soon crumpled up the elaborate imperial structure that had been constructed of material little more enduring than glittering tinsel.

Juarez was an Indian of humble origin, but by the utmost industry and perseverance he acquired great learning, and gained his first distinction through his own talents.

He began his active political career at about 30, and from the time he was 36 he was one of the most notable figures in the public life of Mexico, though Santa Anna, his implacable enemy, drove him out of the country for two years, when he lived in New Orleans until 1855. Three years after his return he made himself president of the republic, and was recognized by the United States, entering the City of Mexico early in 1861 and being confirmed in the presidency by a general election.

By a decree which suspended payment of foreign debts and of all national liabilities he brought down on his government the allied wrath of England, Spain and France, which powers invaded the republic. He soon made peace with England and Spain, but in the civil strife between the United States and Mexico, he introduced imperialism into Mexico, and he declared war against Juarez in 1862.

Juarez was soon driven from the capital by the French army, and thereafter he abandoned one seat of government after another, retreating before the victorious French.

Meanwhile, although Maximilian had been declared emperor of Mexico, Juarez had something more than a moral support of the United States, and he went on fighting while fleeing until he was driven as far north as El Paso del Norte.

Here at last he made a successful stand, and soon began a steady advance southward until he invested Queretaro, where the imperial army was captured. Maximilian was taken prisoner, court martialed and shot.

In July, 1867, Juarez re-entered the capital, and in October he was re-elected president against Porfirio Diaz, the present president of Mexico. In the next five years he was busy suppressing revolutions that Diaz mainly conducted. In 1871 he was again elected president, but died the following year of apoplexy.

Telsa Plant to Go for Debt.

Colorado Springs, March 21.—The costly equipment of Nikola Tesla's experiment station, located here six years ago, when the noted electrician was planning great things in wireless telegraphy, is to be sold tomorrow by the sheriff at public auction to satisfy a judgment in favor of J. C. Duffner. Duffner claims to have been employed as caretaker for two years following Tesla's return to New York. Judgment was obtained by default.

Ask Clemency for Voodoo Doctor.

Special to the Herald.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 21.—Counsel for George P. Hossey, the negro "voodoo" doctor, sentenced to be hanged next week for complicity in the murder of William Danz, have taken their case before the state board of pardons, and at Harrisburg today will make a plea to have the sentence of death commuted to life imprisonment. The aged negro is accused of having sold to Mrs. Catherine Danz "love powders" with which she made away with her husband. The woman was tried and convicted of being a principal in the murder. She was sentenced to be hanged, but her sentence was commuted to life imprisonment. The lawyers for Hossey argue that he was only an accomplice and that in view of the action taken in the woman's case his sentence also should be commuted. In Moyamensing prison the aged "voodoo" doctor, who for years sold "love charms" and "philtres" to ignorant men and women, has acted strangely ever since he was first committed. Only recently he refused to eat any food for a period of eight days, because a screen had been placed in front of the grating in the door of his cell. He is more than eighty years old.

LIVED AND DIED IN BED.

Eccentric Professor Preferred to Keep His Bed.—Afraid of Cold.

Special to the Herald.

Stockholm, March 21.—Professor Oedmann, whose recent death has received notice from King Oscar and others, was a theologian of considerable note and at the same time an eccentric of a most peculiar type. After an illness which compelled him once to keep his bed for a time, he conceived a liking for laying abed, and did all his work and took his meals snugly ensconced in the blankets. The latter part of his life, in fact, was spent entirely in bed. The professor had an unreasonable dread of catching cold, and would never allow his bedroom window to be opened. Written exercises by students were first warmed on a stove before he would touch them. His death was caused by a visit from an old farmer who wished to consult him, and by some mistake entered the bedroom with his clothes plentifully besprinkled with snow. Herr Oedmann angrily ordered him away, but the visitor, who was deaf, drew nearer to his bedside. This excited the warm-loving professor so much that he broke a blood vessel and died.

IRELAND IN PARIS.

American Prelate En Route to Rome to Visit the Pope.

Special to the Herald.

Paris, March 21.—Archbishop Ireland has arrived in Paris on his way to Rome, where he has been summoned by the Pope to confer on important church matters. The eminent American prelate has accepted the invitation of Cardinal Richard, Archbishop of Paris, to address here tomorrow a solemn gathering of all the French cardinals, archbishops and bishops. The purpose of the gathering, which is in the nature of a general council of the church in France, is to discuss the new situation in this and to suggest new rules of discipline to meet the present emergency. Archbishop Ireland is expected to speak on the position of the Roman Catholic church in America, its cordial relations with the state and to draw a parallel with the church's new situation in France, pointing out the many points of resemblance between present conditions in both countries. He is also expected to suggest how far the church in France may follow the American branch in adjusting its relations with the state so that it may really call itself independent and free from interference.

Shooting Without Bullets.

Special to the Herald.

Berlin, March 21.—A patent has just been taken out by Colonel Von Der Goltz at Celle, for an ingenious apparatus enabling a marksman to see the exact result of range firing even though no ammunition be used. The rifle is placed on a rest, which swings freely between two metal supports. The trigger is connected by means of a spring with a little tube below, enclosing a horizontally-placed needle, which pierces a paper target every time the trigger is pulled. The marksman aims at an ordinary target placed at the regulation distances. When he believes his rifle to be properly sighted he pulls the trigger. At that moment the needle darts forward and pierces the little indicator at the exact spot where a bullet would have struck the ordinary target.

Special to the Herald.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 21.—What promises to be the most notable as well as the largest missionary convention ever held in the Northwest was formally opened in this city today, to continue during the remainder of the week. The gathering is attended by several hundred delegates and twice as many visitors, representing practically every Methodist church in Wisconsin, Minnesota, eastern Illinois and northern Iowa. The general purpose of the convention is to bring together the church leaders of the several districts and the active missionary workers, to review the missionary efforts of the past and to lay plans for the future. Several bishops of the church and a number of returned missionaries are on the program for addresses. An interesting feature of the gathering is a missionary exhibit second in size and general interest to none ever displayed in this country. The exhibit is the same as that displayed at the late general conference of the Methodist church held in Los Angeles.

Special to the Herald.

Toronto, Ont., March 21.—The Ontario grand lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen convened in twenty-eighth annual meeting in this city today. The session is not likely to be a protracted one, as the only important matters to come up are those of biennial sessions and reduced representation. The reports of the officers show the order to be financially and morally sound. At the end of January the surplus over all claims amounted to $687,000.

SO DECEPTIVE.

Many Palestine People Fail to Realize the Seriousness.

Backache is so deceptive. It comes and goes—keeps you guessing. Learn the cause—then cure it. Nine times out of ten it comes from the kidneys. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it. Cure every kidney ailment from backache to diabetes.

Here's a Palestine case to prove it: N. White, retired, of 402 Howard avenue, says: "About six months ago I was seized with an attack of kidney complaint. It first began with a slight pain in my back. I paid little attention to it at the time, thinking it would disappear in the course of a few days, but instead of getting better it grew gradually worse until it became so bad that I had to take to my bed. From the nature of my suffering I came to the conclusion that the trouble was all due to disorders of the kidneys. I used a number of different remedies and tried doctor's prescriptions without getting any marked benefit. Finally my attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills, and deciding to give them a trial, I procured two boxes at the Bratton Drug Co.'s store. I never used any remedy so effective. In a few days the pains disappeared from my back entirely, and I could stoop, straighten and move about without any inconvenience. I cannot say too much in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills, and I take pleasure in recommending a remedy that does just what is claimed for it."

BEARING DOWN PAINS

3847 Indiana Avenue. CHICAGO, ILL., Sept. 27, 1902.

I have been a sufferer with almost every kind of female trouble for years, but as long as I could get around and do my work I would not try patent medicines as I had no faith in them.

About eight months ago I had to take to my bed, suffering with prolapsus of the uterus, with bearing down pains and intense pains in the back. My aunt, who came to nurse me told me of Wine of Cardui and sent for a bottle. I am indeed glad that she did, for that first bottle started me on the road to recovery. In a few weeks I was out of bed and in three months I was
